

RALLY, RALLY!

The Democrats of the Fifth and Sixth wards will hold a meeting on Wednesday night next, at the Democratic headquarters, on Fifth, between Market and Jefferson streets.

Andrew J. Fannell, surveyor of the customs at Wheeling, Va., has been re-appointed.

The army worm is very destructive in some portions of the country.

FOUNDS.—We have a splendid buck-horn hand knife, marked Jno. McMin, and a pair of silver-framed spectacles in a red case, which were left in our editorial room on Saturday night, at a time when it was confidently believed that Bullitt was elected Judge. The owners can recover them by calling and paying charges.

Marshall Wade and Cornelius West have been with great propriety on Sunday last in Portland, while under the influence of evil spirits, and were held to bail in Police Court yesterday to be of good behavior three months.

An elderly female named Dye Marshall, who lives in Washington street, up town, was charged in Police Court yesterday, with habitual intoxication. A young man of good character, who, we believe, is her son, saved her from the disgrace of being sent to the Work-house by lying upon her bed for future good behavior.

LEWISTON AND THE SANDY RAILROAD.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Lexington and Big Sandy Railroad Company, held in Mt. Sterling, on Wednesday, the 17th inst., the following gentlemen were elected Directors for the ensuing year, viz: Joseph Buchanan, of Montgomery; G. W. Crawford, of Carter; D. B. Groom, of Clarke; John B. Payne, Jr., of Fayette; J. M. Nesbit, of Bath; and D. K. Weis, of Greenup. At a subsequent meeting of the Board, Richard Apperson, Esq., was elected President. We are glad to learn, by the recent report of the Secretary, that this great enterprise is in a flourishing condition. Mr. Apperson is one of the most thorough business men in our Commonwealth, and we hope for the best results from his efficient management.

Owing to the number of patients who have applied to Dr. Flower, in Fifth street, for relief in Asthma, Consumption, &c., he will remain in the city a few days longer. See him soon, if you would be cured.

We would remind those of our readers who use Spectacles, that Mr. Solomon's in Louisville is now limited to July 7th. Persons desirous of procuring his Improved Spectacles, which are pronounced by all who have worn them to be superior to any others, should lose no time in calling at his office, on Fourth street, between Main and Market, over Raymond & Patten's medicine store.

A Convocation of some of the Clergy and laity of the Episcopal Church in Kentucky will meet at St. Andrew's Church, in this city, next Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. The public are invited to attend.

MASONIC NOTICE.—The officers of the different Masonic bodies of this city are requested to meet at their hall, corner Third and Market streets, on Wednesday evening, the 24th inst., at 8 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of making arrangements to attend the ceremony of laying the corner-stone of the monument to be erected to the memory of our distinguished brother, Henry Clay.

FOR THE BENEFIT OF EDUCATION.—We hope our young friends will not forget the delightful entertainment at the St. Charles Hotel, in Portland. The St. Charles is one of the best hotels in the West, and no pains will be spared to render the party in every way agreeable.

GREAT STORM IN ILLINOIS.—We have the particulars of the great storm at Peoria, Ill., on Saturday, the 13th inst. The town is in ruins. Thirty-three buildings were blown down, one person was killed, seven wounded, and property to the amount of $75,000 was destroyed.

NEW MUSIC.—We are indebted to the publishers, Messrs. D. P. Fannell & Co., for the following beautiful new music: "I'm Coming Home," music by C. M. Morse, words by Rev. A. Tucker; "Spirit Gallop," composed by Fred Cell; and "Old Times," a ballad, composed by Sam. V. Morris.

Messrs. Tripp & Cragg, Fourth street, between Market and Jefferson, have just received a large consignment of pianos and musical merchandise—among other things, several of those favorite instruments, the real Nunn's & Clark's.

ADVERTISE HORSEMAN.—John Hyde and J. F. Smith, abusive husbands, were arraigned before Police Court yesterday for cruelty to those whom they have sworn to cherish and protect. In addition to a pretty severe but deserved castigation, which Hyde had received at the hand of his step-son, both Hyde and Smith were held in $300 bail for their good behavior three months.

A NEW POSTMASTER FOR SALT LAKE CITY.—On the 25th of October last, Mr. Hiram F. Morrell was appointed Postmaster at Salt Lake City, Utah, in the place of Elias Smith, removed. The credentials were regularly forwarded from the department, but never delivered to Mr. Morrell. Duplicates followed with no better success. Mr. Morrell, being now at the seat of the general government, has received his commission, qualified before the Hon. George P. Sikes, associate judge of Utah, now in Washington, entered into the bonds required, and in a day or two will start fully equipped to take charge of the Post-office at Salt Lake City.

THE KNOW-NOTHING NOMINATIONS.—In addition to the Know-Nothing nominations for county officers, which we published in our last, the following were made subsequently: For the Legislature from the county—Dr. S. A. Fox and J. M. Mitchell; for the Legislature from the Third and Fourth Wards of the city, Curran Pope.

TRIAL OF AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.—The summer trial of harvesting implements, under the auspices of the United States Agricultural Society, will be held at Syracuse, New York, commencing July 13, 1857. This trial will be very interesting to farmers and manufacturers. Nearly one hundred implements have already been entered for competition. The circular and a list of premiums and rules and regulations for this trial, may be obtained by application at the office of the Society, at the Merchants' Exchange.

AT Danville, Sumpter county, Ala., on the 10th inst., the ferry-house, together with its contents, was consumed by fire, and Mrs. McKinley, widow of the former ferryman, and her step-daughter, burned to death.

They have in Memphis an association entitled "Old Folks at Home."

The Memphis Appeal has been considerably enlarged, and bears the evidences in its columns of prosperity and success.

PERSONAL.

—We were honored with a visit by James M. Morrison, Esq., one of the able editors of the New Albany Ledger.

—Dr. David Dale Owen, of New Harmony, Indiana, was at the Galt House yesterday.

—"Howard Curtis" ("Mrs. Polk") is now one of the proprietors of Putnam's Magazine.

—The President has officially recognized Herman Beckurts of this city as Consul of the Duchy of Brunswick for the State of Kentucky.

—Dr. J. T. Oxley, of Columbus, Ohio, was one of the unfortunate Sodom fillibusters.

—Among those who were granted patents last week are Micajah Tolle, of Newport, Ky., for improvement in cultivating plows, and Wm. T. Pepper, of Rising Sun, Ind., for improvement in Corn-planters.

A Splendid Testimonial.—We were shown yesterday the gold snuff-box presented Governor Meriwether by the citizens of New Mexico. It is certainly one of the most beautifully wrought specimens we have ever seen. It is most elaborately chased and enameled, and weighs about equal to the weight of $50 dollars in gold. On the inside of the lid the following words are engraved in the Spanish language: "A present from the Democracy of New Mexico, to His Excellency Governor David Meriwether, in testimony of their appreciation of his services."

As the Governor is somewhat given to the luxury of the weed in its powdered form, the present was very appropriate one, and should be highly prized by him. It will be a pleasing memento of the past, of the years of his life spent far away in the deep valley of the West, and of the kind appreciation of the people over whom he was called to preside as Governor in their territorial form, and whom he may live to welcome in as a State.

Certain portions of Third street have recently undergone a thorough scraping and cleansing. It is now tolerably clean and passable, and people can resume their wonted walks along that popular thoroughfare, and need not fear to bring their olfactory organs.

FAILURE OF CROPS IN CALIFORNIA.—Advices received from the Indian Reserve, in California, represent an almost entire failure of the crops. There will be a great scarcity of food, and the Government will have to import breadstuffs for the Indian wards.

WELSH ANOTHER EXAMPLE IN POLICE COURT.—Yesterday of the terrible results of intemperance. Thomas W. Carey, for many years regarded as a gentleman and confided in as a clerk, in Cincinnati, was charged with obtaining goods under false pretences. Messrs. Durkee, Heath & Co., of the well-known New York store, in Fourth street, have been for some time disposed to encourage him, and gave him employment in their establishment, but continued disapproval upon his part forced those gentlemen to dismiss him. He obtained a coat on Saturday from Messrs. McFadden & Sheekley, representing that he was in the employ of Messrs. D. H. & Co., which led to the arrest. We are convinced that the young man's misfortune is not brought about by a lurking fondness for crime, but he has been steeped in ruin by following the seductions of the wine-cup. He was committed on a charge of felony in default of $500 bail.

DETAILS OF THE INDIAN MURDERS.—We have before made the general announcement of an attack by a party of one hundred Chippewas upon a company of emigrants on their way to California—the killing of four men and the wounding of two men and one woman. The party consisted of C. B. Weaver and wife, A. P. Weaver, R. Weaver, M. Lewis, Samuel Smith, E. Garrison, J. Smith, Wm. Smith, and J. Hueston, from Carroll county, Arkansas, and Barry county, Missouri. Two rounds were fired, and then the Indians charged on the whites. The Indians robbed the wagons; and, meanwhile, two of the men escaped to the Yonkinn settlement, where a company of twelve men was raised with provisions and arms, and immediately proceeded to the relief of the defeated party.

Various rumors and statements of the difficulty between Messrs. Harris and Hutton, the opposing candidates for Governor in Tennessee, have been published, and we deem it proper to furnish the following, which we find in the Nashville Union of the 19th inst.

A Statement to the Public.—The undersigned, acting in the capacity of mutual friends of Gen. Isham G. Harris and Col. Robt. Hutton, after having fully examined into the circumstances surrounding the origin and attending the unpleasant personal difficulty that occurred during their discussion at Fayetteville, on the 15th inst., are satisfied that the result of a mutual misunderstanding between the parties—that each acted upon a misconception of the language and intention of the other, and that therefore both have occasion to regret the unpleasant altercation that took place.

The friends of Col. Hutton understand him to have declared, "That the doctrine that the Union is an unalienable man of the old world, has no claims upon our country, no rights shall come to our country, and that rule and govern it, is an infamous doctrine, an iniquity that smells to heaven," and that when Gen. Harris inquired whether he intended to apply such language to him, after a short colloquy, he repeated nearly the same declaration, and that the doctrine was infamous, and "that those who advocated it, advocated a doctrine that is infamous and smells to heaven."

The friends of Gen. Harris understood Col. Hutton as assuming that Gen. Harris favored the policy of allowing an unauthorized foreigner to vote in Tennessee for members of Congress, &c., and that this policy he denominated as "infamous," and that he intended to leave Gen. Harris no room to doubt that he intended to apply the term "infamous" to him. His answer was, "Do you expect to intimidate me by coming forward and asking this question?" Gen. Harris answered, "By no means. I do not wish to intimidate any gentleman; but I have a right to know whether you apply the term infamous to me or not." To which Col. Hutton replied, "Then it is an explanation that you want?" To which Gen. Harris replied, "That is all I want. I only desire to know whether you intended to apply that term to me." To which Col. Hutton replied, "I repeat that I repeat that the policy is infamous, rank, and smells to heaven, and those who advocate it are." At this point Gen. Harris struck him.

HOOPS.—Are becoming so common that they are completely covering the streets of our beautiful city. No less than twenty-three wheelbarrow hoops and brass bands were picked up yesterday—left by some of the fair sex.

IN FAVOR OF HOOPS.

Letter from Carroll County.

CENTREVILLE, Ky., June 15, 1857.

MESSRS. EDITORS: On the 12th inst., one of my cows brought forth a calf, the size of which created universal astonishment. Its weight, when but two hours old, was one hundred and nine pounds!

The heaviest rain storm experienced for many years passed over this section of country on the 13th. Crops generally look well. We have the latest tree and the largest lettuce ever seen; in fact, everything seems to be in a flourishing condition in this corner of Mt. Creek precinct, except poor Sam. He received his death wound in November last, and we expect to attend his funeral in August next.

Respectfully, yours, &c.,

Tides and Weather.

News by Telegraph.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—A terrible thunder storm passed over the city about 7 o'clock this afternoon, accompanied for about fifteen minutes with hail stones of an enormous size, some weighing five to six ounces. The hail caused immense destruction to sky lights and windows of churches and public and private buildings, and also to the Government Conservatories. Several private galleries of art were also seriously damaged. The trees were half stripped of their foliage, and the roofs of houses were in some cases, and in many cases, the horses and cows in the fields were severely hurt. The storm extended about twelve miles in length, from southwest to northeast. No reports have been received from the stations lying in its track, but it is supposed they have undoubtedly been greatly injured, if not entirely ruined.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS.—An experienced farmer says that Porter's Oriental Life Liniment is worth a hundred dollars a year to him, and he would not be without it if it cost ten dollars per bottle. Every farmer should keep a supply of this liniment on hand. It is a well-known fact, that it is the most certain and reliable remedy known for the cure of fresh cuts, sprains, bruises, &c., in man or beast; and for the cure of saddle and collar-galls in horses, it has no equal. Two hundred and fifty thousand bottles of the Oriental Life Liniment have been sold in the last six months, and has given general satisfaction to all who have used it. It is sold by druggists and merchants everywhere, at twenty-five and fifty cents and one dollar per bottle.
